

93

2001 Rocca di Castagnoli Buriano

The 2001 Buriano, all Cabernet, an inky ruby in color, offers very ripe blackberry and black currant fruit, resin, and eucalyptus in its aromatics, a weighty, full-throttle palate of creme de cassis and gravel, and a warm, intense licorice and graphite-laden finish. Built to last, it will drink well for another decade and a half. Importer: Montecastelli Selections, New York, NY; tel. (212) 414-4898

- Daniel Thomases (April, 2006)

Copyright 2016, The Wine Advocate, Inc. - Reprinted with permission